

Configuration

Configuration

This section reviews the Configuration feature in GroundWork Monitor. This tool provides a user interface versus a command line text editor to configure the monitoring system for each monitored application, service, device, etc.

For detailed information expand  Configuration in the navigation pane or select from the links below:

- About Configuration
- Configuration How To's